

WEATHER.

Unsettled, probably showers to night and tomorrow; not much change in temperature. High, 75, at 2 p.m. today. Low, 43, at 7 a.m. Full report on page 4.

Closing New York Stocks, Page 17.

No. 28,071. Entered as second-class matter post office Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON, D. C., MONDAY, MARCH 7, 1921—TWENTY-TWO PAGES.

Member of the Associated Press. The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein. All rights of publication of special dispatches are also reserved.

Saturday's Net Circulation, 110,971 Sunday's Net Circulation, 96,723

TWO CENTS.

PRESIDENT CALLS DOORS TO TAKE POLICES

Will Discuss Attitude Toward Congress at White House Dinner Tonight.

NEW CABINET TO MEET FIRST TIME TOMORROW

Vice President Coolidge Invited to Attend—Kellogg Gives Data on Cable Controversy.

Legislative policies of the new administration will be discussed by President Harding with republican congressional leaders at a dinner to-night at the White House. Tomorrow the President will preside at the first meeting of his cabinet. The call went out today and the hour was fixed at 11 a.m., and Vice President Coolidge was invited to attend.

It was said that the cabinet session would be of a general character, and that the President would take up in particular the question of relations with Costa Rica and Panama and the program for the special session of Congress. Information and advice received at the dinner tonight is expected to be laid before the cabinet by Mr. Harding and a definite decision on a date for opening Congress into session may follow.

Senators to Attend. Those who will attend the dinner at the White House tonight are: Senators Lodge of Massachusetts, the republican leader; Curtis of Kansas, republican whip; Clegg of Pennsylvania; Warren of Wyoming; Cummins of Iowa; Knox of Pennsylvania; Wadsworth of New York; J. P. Jones of Washington and John of California.

Representative Mondell of Wyoming, the republican House leader, heads the list of representatives who will be present. The others are: Henry of Michigan; Mann of Illinois; Longworth of Ohio; Kelley of Michigan; Anthony of Kansas; Simpson of Virginia; Campbell of Illinois; Fess of Ohio; and J. P. Jones of Iowa and Winslow of Massachusetts.

President Harding began his second day in the White House by hearing the report of the executive officers. He arrived shortly after 8:30, a full half hour before the cabinet meeting, and for some time was the only official present in that end of the White House.

As soon as the President had settled himself at his desk he called for a new Air Mail envelope, which was assigned a place for the day on a couch in the President's office.

Somebody First Called. Mr. Harding's first caller today was Senator Pomeroy, of Montana, who said he had only dropped in to pay his respects to his former colleague in the White House. Mr. Pomeroy, who came into the White House with him.

With minor subjects was taken up by the President during the day in a series of short conferences. He held one with Mr. E. A. Tamm, both republicans, present at Maine. Mr. Tamm, of Portland, Me., that Mr. Thomas of Oregon, and asked that post.

Senator Kellogg, republican, Minnesota, had a short conference with Mr. Harding, and although he would not comment afterward, the understanding was that the Kellogg-Miami cable incident, with which he has been in touch as chairman of a Senate subcommittee.

Elmer Dover of Tacoma, Wash., was one of the first of the President's republican national committee talked with him on the subject of his candidacy for the position of chairman of the committee to succeed Will H. Hays.

Chamberlain in Conference. George Chamberlain of Oregon, former chairman of the Senate military committee, who retired as a democratic senator, was called into a conference today by President Harding. The understanding is that the cable incident, with which he has been in touch as chairman of a Senate subcommittee.

Mr. Harding frequently has expressed high regard for the ability for his former Oregon colleague in the Senate and he is expected to discuss the cable incident with him in his position under this administration.

Mr. Wood expected to decide. Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, who has been offered the governorship of the Philippine Islands, will see President Harding late today and is expected to make his final reply in reference to the offer. An appointment for the conference was made by the War Department. The President received Gen. Wood at the earliest possible moment.

No definite schedule of cabinet meetings has yet been agreed upon in the Wilson administration. They were held ordinarily on Tuesday, but the President has decided that they may decide to have a round table discussion with his advisers more often than once a week.

The question of the special session of Congress was discussed by the President with Mr. Wood of Alabama, the democratic Senate leader, who is understood to have urged the President to call the first half of April be selected.

After his talk with Mr. Harding the Alabama senator indicated that a date probably would be announced tomorrow.

REPRESENTATIVES' TRIP.

Many Members of House, With Families, to Go to Panama.

About one hundred members of the House of Representatives and their families are to leave New York next Saturday on a two weeks' trip to Panama.

While this trip includes primarily members of the committee on Panama and foreign commerce, it is in no way an official junket. The members are going at their own expense. They are to sail on the Cristobal.

PANAMA AROUSE OVER HUGHES' NOTE

President Porras Says "Painful Impression" Has Been Created.

By the Associated Press. PANAMA, March 7.—Receipt of the note sent to Costa Rica and Panama by Charles E. Hughes, American Secretary of State, asking that hostilities between the two countries cease, produced "a painful impression," said President Porras of the Republic of Panama last evening.

"This impression was caused," continued the president, "because he advised us to withdraw from Costa Rica, which we have recovered from the Costa Ricans."

The president reiterated his recent statement that the arbitration award handed down in 1914 by Chief Justice White was "completely unacceptable" to Panama, adding: "There is no reason why we should accept it, but we will be pleased to secure another opportunity to discuss our rights."

Cruiser Reported Near. It is understood the United States cruiser Sacramento, with an Eagle boat, has arrived at Bocas del Toro, but this cannot be confirmed, since the headquarters of the fifteenth naval district when the question was submitted to Justice White, both sides agreeing to limit the White House to a boundary line within the limits set by the Loubet decision.

The statement says that Justice White, when he agreed to limit the White House to a boundary line within the limits set by the Loubet decision.

President Porras in his statement announces that Panama is willing to accept mediation by the United States on the Costa Rica withdrawal from the left bank of the River Sixido; that Costa Rica refrain from attacking the Panama forces which have reoccupied Coto.

In addition, the president declares that the Panama government is willing to accept mediation by the United States on the Costa Rica withdrawal from the left bank of the River Sixido; that Costa Rica refrain from attacking the Panama forces which have reoccupied Coto.

Many South Americans and others are volunteering for service in the Costa Rican army, being formed in Costa Rica by officers who served under the administration of former President Porras in 1914.

Many South Americans and others are volunteering for service in the Costa Rican army, being formed in Costa Rica by officers who served under the administration of former President Porras in 1914.

Many South Americans and others are volunteering for service in the Costa Rican army, being formed in Costa Rica by officers who served under the administration of former President Porras in 1914.

Many South Americans and others are volunteering for service in the Costa Rican army, being formed in Costa Rica by officers who served under the administration of former President Porras in 1914.

Many South Americans and others are volunteering for service in the Costa Rican army, being formed in Costa Rica by officers who served under the administration of former President Porras in 1914.

Many South Americans and others are volunteering for service in the Costa Rican army, being formed in Costa Rica by officers who served under the administration of former President Porras in 1914.

Many South Americans and others are volunteering for service in the Costa Rican army, being formed in Costa Rica by officers who served under the administration of former President Porras in 1914.

Many South Americans and others are volunteering for service in the Costa Rican army, being formed in Costa Rica by officers who served under the administration of former President Porras in 1914.

Many South Americans and others are volunteering for service in the Costa Rican army, being formed in Costa Rica by officers who served under the administration of former President Porras in 1914.

Many South Americans and others are volunteering for service in the Costa Rican army, being formed in Costa Rica by officers who served under the administration of former President Porras in 1914.

KRONSTADT BOYS RELEASED FROM PETROGRAD AFIRE

All Classes in Great Naval Base Unite to Escape Bolshevik Yoke.

LENIN AND TROTSKY GET READY TO FLEE CAPITAL

Russian Committee in Paris Appeals to President Harding and Hoover for Food Supplies.

By the Associated Press. HELSINGFORS, Finland, March 7.—All classes of citizens at Kronstadt, the great Russian naval base near Petrograd, have united in the uprising against the soviet government, saying a dispatch to the Russian union agency here.

Organization of a revolutionary committee, which later became the provisional government, was carried out without participation of political parties, and its members were chosen almost exclusively from seamen and workmen having no political affiliations.

The provisional government has published a program, the agency announced, the essence of which is a demand for immediate convening of a constituent assembly and the restoration of freedom of trade between individuals.

Troops Coming From Moscow. LONDON, March 7.—The Central News correspondent at Helsingfors reports receipt of news of the most serious character from Petrograd since midnight. The advice said many of the residential and business quarters were in flames.

The soviet government, the message continued, was dispatching a large number of troops to Petrograd to assist in restoring order. The Petrograd rebels, it was added, were planning to resist the troops.

A wireless message received from Moscow today said that the Petrograd rebels were planning to resist the troops.

The Petrograd rebels, it was added, were planning to resist the troops.

The Petrograd rebels, it was added, were planning to resist the troops.

The Petrograd rebels, it was added, were planning to resist the troops.

The Petrograd rebels, it was added, were planning to resist the troops.

The Petrograd rebels, it was added, were planning to resist the troops.

The Petrograd rebels, it was added, were planning to resist the troops.

The Petrograd rebels, it was added, were planning to resist the troops.

The Petrograd rebels, it was added, were planning to resist the troops.

The Petrograd rebels, it was added, were planning to resist the troops.

The Petrograd rebels, it was added, were planning to resist the troops.

The Petrograd rebels, it was added, were planning to resist the troops.

POPE DENOUNCES CRIMES IN IRELAND

Condemned by Whichever Side Committed, Pontiff Declares.

By the Associated Press. ROME, March 7.—Pope Benedict, in his allocution delivered at the secret consistory today, alluded to Ireland having been the scene of a struggle between the forces of law and order and the forces of anarchy.

There had been an outbreak of appalling violence and crimes in contradiction of the laws of morality, the pontiff declared, "crimes which we condemn by whichever side committed."

Although the consistory was strictly private, it was a picturesque and imposing function, which aroused great interest in Rome.

After opening the proceedings with prayer for divine guidance, the Pope delivered an allocution in which he alluded to Ireland having been the scene of a struggle between the forces of law and order and the forces of anarchy.

There had been an outbreak of appalling violence and crimes in contradiction of the laws of morality, the pontiff declared, "crimes which we condemn by whichever side committed."

Although the consistory was strictly private, it was a picturesque and imposing function, which aroused great interest in Rome.

After opening the proceedings with prayer for divine guidance, the Pope delivered an allocution in which he alluded to Ireland having been the scene of a struggle between the forces of law and order and the forces of anarchy.

There had been an outbreak of appalling violence and crimes in contradiction of the laws of morality, the pontiff declared, "crimes which we condemn by whichever side committed."

Although the consistory was strictly private, it was a picturesque and imposing function, which aroused great interest in Rome.

After opening the proceedings with prayer for divine guidance, the Pope delivered an allocution in which he alluded to Ireland having been the scene of a struggle between the forces of law and order and the forces of anarchy.

There had been an outbreak of appalling violence and crimes in contradiction of the laws of morality, the pontiff declared, "crimes which we condemn by whichever side committed."

Although the consistory was strictly private, it was a picturesque and imposing function, which aroused great interest in Rome.

After opening the proceedings with prayer for divine guidance, the Pope delivered an allocution in which he alluded to Ireland having been the scene of a struggle between the forces of law and order and the forces of anarchy.

There had been an outbreak of appalling violence and crimes in contradiction of the laws of morality, the pontiff declared, "crimes which we condemn by whichever side committed."

Although the consistory was strictly private, it was a picturesque and imposing function, which aroused great interest in Rome.

After opening the proceedings with prayer for divine guidance, the Pope delivered an allocution in which he alluded to Ireland having been the scene of a struggle between the forces of law and order and the forces of anarchy.

There had been an outbreak of appalling violence and crimes in contradiction of the laws of morality, the pontiff declared, "crimes which we condemn by whichever side committed."

Although the consistory was strictly private, it was a picturesque and imposing function, which aroused great interest in Rome.

After opening the proceedings with prayer for divine guidance, the Pope delivered an allocution in which he alluded to Ireland having been the scene of a struggle between the forces of law and order and the forces of anarchy.

There had been an outbreak of appalling violence and crimes in contradiction of the laws of morality, the pontiff declared, "crimes which we condemn by whichever side committed."

LADDIE AND TEDDY.

LIMERICK'S MAJOR MURDERER, SAYS THREE MEN NEEDED AS DISTRICT HEADS

Former Mayor O'Callaghan Is Similarly Slain by Band of Assassins.

By the Associated Press. DUBLIN, March 7.—George Clancy, mayor of Limerick, was shot and killed at his home in that city early this morning and his wife was seriously wounded. At about the same time Michael O'Callaghan, former mayor of the city, was also killed at his residence.

Reports received here state that Mayor Clancy and his wife were shot at about 1:30 o'clock, but, owing to curfew restrictions, members of the household were afraid to venture on the streets to secure aid, and friends with whom they communicated by telephone could not go to the house for the same reason.

About two hours later a doctor arrived from a hospital and found Mayor Clancy dead and Mrs. Clancy in a critical condition. Former Mayor O'Callaghan was dying when doctors summoned by the police arrived at the house.

Hands Shot in Cold Blood. Bands of men shot George Clancy, mayor of Limerick, and Michael O'Callaghan, a former mayor of that city, in cold blood while they were lying in their beds. Mrs. Clancy, who was seriously wounded, was shot in one of her arms.

Limerick is intensely excited over the shootings, which are popularly interpreted as reprisals for the assassination of Brig. Gen. Cumming, who was killed at Clonabinn on Saturday.

Death of Gen. Cumming. CORK, March 6.—Brig. Gen. Cumming, commander of the Kerry military district, was shot and killed in the ambush of a military convoy in Clonabinn, this county, Saturday afternoon.

Gen. Cumming was president of the court of inquiry appointed to investigate the shooting of a military convoy in Clonabinn, this county, Saturday afternoon.

The first two cars of the convoy were blown up by a mine and a second car was shot by a machine gun. According to the dispatch, an armoured car managed to reach Kanturk from which reinforcements were sent to the scene of the ambush. The attacking party escaped into the hills.

A Dublin dispatch of Saturday night, quoting an official statement, said that some of the officers killed were thirty-five men in the military convoy.

Cardinal Advocates Truce. BELFAST, March 6.—Cardinal Logue, primate of all Ireland, in a letter to the priests of the Armagh diocese makes another powerful appeal for a truce in Ireland and suggests the forthcoming birthday of the Virgin Mary as an occasion for an appeal to the Almighty for the return of peace to Ireland, pointed out that St. Patrick brought peace to the country.

Student of District Affairs. H. lives at 426 10th street, and as a member of the Piney Street Citizens' Association has made a close study of district affairs, and is considered well acquainted with the needs of the city.

He was married in 1902 to Miss Ella M. Sumner, one of the daughters of the late John Sumner, and has two sons, one, Ira, being employed in Senator Atkins' office, and the other, Richard, being a member of the city council.

Mr. Fenton attends the Calvary M. E. Church and is a member of Almas Temple of the Mystic Shrine.

USE GOWN PREFERENCE TO NAME BLUE SWEET PEA FOR MRS. HARDING

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, March 7.—A handsome blue sweet pea to be exhibited in the eighth international flower show, which opens here today, has been named "Mrs. Warren Harding."

The flower's color is similar to that for which Mrs. Harding showed preference when selecting sweet peas for her own garden, and which was named "Harding blue."

MEMORANDUM FOR POSITION CHOSEN BY GOSSIP

Pershing, Harvey and Collier Mentioned for Ambassadorships—Speculation Busy.

A good deal of the interest consequent in the change of administration centers at present upon appointments to office and patronage dispensation generally. Of necessity, discussion at this time is largely speculative and of the gossip variety, but there is lots of talk.

It is part of the gossip of the day that Gen. John J. Pershing may be sent as ambassador to France, although Myron T. Herrick's name is also mentioned in the same connection. Gen. Pershing is being urged, it is said, on account of his experience in France and his presumed great acceptability to the French nation as America's representative.

Col. George Harvey still leads in the gossip concerning the British ambassadorship. Harvey was very close to President Harding in the campaign, and was one of the leading "best minds" consulted by him in the cabinet conferences after the election. His nomination to that post would be regarded by the republicans as an additional emphasis of thumbs down for the league as the policy of the administration.

Mr. Collier, president of George Washington University, has been recommended for ambassador to National Committee men having joined in the suggestion.

For Assistant War Secretary. Representative Thomas W. Crago of Pennsylvania is being urged for assistant secretary of war. Mr. Crago is a specialist on military affairs. He served in the Spanish war, and since he has been in Congress has been on the committee on military affairs, taking active part in all the legislation prior to and during the war.

For Assistant War Secretary. Representative Thomas W. Crago of Pennsylvania is being urged for assistant secretary of war. Mr. Crago is a specialist on military affairs. He served in the Spanish war, and since he has been in Congress has been on the committee on military affairs, taking active part in all the legislation prior to and during the war.

For Assistant War Secretary. Representative Thomas W. Crago of Pennsylvania is being urged for assistant secretary of war. Mr. Crago is a specialist on military affairs. He served in the Spanish war, and since he has been in Congress has been on the committee on military affairs, taking active part in all the legislation prior to and during the war.

For Assistant War Secretary. Representative Thomas W. Crago of Pennsylvania is being urged for assistant secretary of war. Mr. Crago is a specialist on military affairs. He served in the Spanish war, and since he has been in Congress has been on the committee on military affairs, taking active part in all the legislation prior to and during the war.

For Assistant War Secretary. Representative Thomas W. Crago of Pennsylvania is being urged for assistant secretary of war. Mr. Crago is a specialist on military affairs. He served in the Spanish war, and since he has been in Congress has been on the committee on military affairs, taking active part in all the legislation prior to and during the war.

For Assistant War Secretary. Representative Thomas W. Crago of Pennsylvania is being urged for assistant secretary of war. Mr. Crago is a specialist on military affairs. He served in the Spanish war, and since he has been in Congress has been on the committee on military affairs, taking active part in all the legislation prior to and during the war.

For Assistant War Secretary. Representative Thomas W. Crago of Pennsylvania is being urged for assistant secretary of war. Mr. Crago is a specialist on military affairs. He served in the Spanish war, and since he has been in Congress has been on the committee on military affairs, taking active part in all the legislation prior to and during the war.

For Assistant War Secretary. Representative Thomas W. Crago of Pennsylvania is being urged for assistant secretary of war. Mr. Crago is a specialist on military affairs. He served in the Spanish war, and since he has been in Congress has been on the committee on military affairs, taking active part in all the legislation prior to and during the war.

For Assistant War Secretary. Representative Thomas W. Crago of Pennsylvania is being urged for assistant secretary of war. Mr. Crago is a specialist on military affairs. He served in the Spanish war, and since he has been in Congress has been on the committee on military affairs, taking active part in all the legislation prior to and during the war.

For Assistant War Secretary. Representative Thomas W. Crago of Pennsylvania is being urged for assistant secretary of war. Mr. Crago is a specialist on military affairs. He served in the Spanish war, and since he has been in Congress has been on the committee on military affairs, taking active part in all the legislation prior to and during the war.

For Assistant War Secretary. Representative Thomas W. Crago of Pennsylvania is being urged for assistant secretary of war. Mr. Crago is a specialist on military affairs. He served in the Spanish war, and since he has been in Congress has been on the committee on military affairs, taking active part in all the legislation prior to and during the war.

For Assistant War Secretary. Representative Thomas W. Crago of Pennsylvania is being urged for assistant secretary of war. Mr. Crago is a specialist on military affairs. He served in the Spanish war, and since he has been in Congress has been on the committee on military affairs, taking active part in all the legislation prior to and during the war.

For Assistant War Secretary. Representative Thomas W. Crago of Pennsylvania is being urged for assistant secretary of war. Mr. Crago is a specialist on military affairs. He served in the Spanish war, and since he has been in Congress has been on the committee on military affairs, taking active part in all the legislation prior to and during the war.

For Assistant War Secretary. Representative Thomas W. Crago of Pennsylvania is being urged for assistant secretary of war. Mr. Crago is a specialist on military affairs. He served in the Spanish war, and since he has been in Congress has been on the committee on military affairs, taking active part in all the legislation prior to and during the war.

PENALTY DECREED AS GERMANY FALLS TO ALLIES

Allies Take Extreme Steps After Rejecting New Teuton Proposal.

ORDER SEIZURE OF CITIES, TAXES, CUSTOMS SYSTEM

No Peace Until There Is Permanent Settlement, Says Lloyd George in Announcement.

By the Associated Press. LONDON, March 7.—Allied troops will march into Germany tomorrow, in accordance with the decision of the allies to inflict on Germany the penalties provided for because of the non-fulfillment of her reparations obligations, it was announced officially this evening.

Application of the penalties on Germany for non-fulfillment of her reparations obligations was decided upon by the allies here this afternoon.

The penalties in question were announced to the Germans last Thursday by Mr. Lloyd George, the British premier, in a speech from the House of Commons. He declared that the allies would not make such a mistake as to let Germany off with the imposition of the penalties.

The British premier said he must announce to the world that the allies would not make such a mistake as to let Germany off with the imposition of the penalties.

Until we get proposals from Germany which mean a permanent settlement, there can be no peace," he declared.

The conference between the heads of the allied governments and representatives of the German government, which began at noon today for discussion of the reparations question, took an adjournment at 1:30 o'clock until 4:30 p.m.

The new proposals were of the first five years. The Germans said they would not make such a mistake as to let Germany off with the imposition of the penalties.

The British premier said he must announce to the world that the allies would not make such a mistake as to let Germany off with the imposition of the penalties.

Until we get proposals from Germany which mean a permanent settlement, there can be no peace," he declared.

The conference between the heads of the allied governments and representatives of the German government, which began at noon today for discussion of the reparations question, took an adjournment at 1:30 o'clock until 4:30 p.m.

The new proposals were of the first five years. The Germans said they would not make such a mistake as to let Germany off with the imposition of the penalties.

The British premier said he must announce to the world that the allies would not make such a mistake as to let Germany off with the imposition of the penalties.

Until we get proposals from Germany which mean a permanent settlement, there can be no peace," he declared.

The conference between the heads of the allied governments and representatives of the German government, which began at noon today for discussion of the reparations question, took an adjournment at 1:30 o'clock until 4:30 p.m.

The new proposals were of the first five years. The Germans said they would not make such a mistake as to let Germany off with the imposition of the penalties.

The British premier said he must announce to the world that the allies would not make such a mistake as to let Germany off with the imposition of the penalties.

Until we get proposals from Germany which mean a permanent settlement, there can be no peace," he declared.

The conference between the heads of the allied governments and representatives of the German government, which began at noon today for discussion of the reparations question, took an adjournment at 1:30 o'clock until 4:30 p.m.

The new proposals were of the first five years. The Germans said they would not make such a mistake as to let Germany off with the imposition of the penalties.

The Readjustment of Business Is the Paramount Question Today

Watch it develop from day to day by reading the telegraphic dispatches sent to The Evening Star from special correspondents in the principal business centers of the country, as follows:

New York Boston Chicago Detroit Philadelphia St. Louis San Francisco Pittsburgh St. Paul Seattle Fort Worth Atlanta Cleveland Kansas City New Orleans

Dispatches appearing daily will supply unbiased and authoritative news on business conditions.

The whole world finds the problems of business and trade much more intensified than ever during this era of readjustment.

This is not only a service for business men, but the news stories from the above cities will give valuable information to every consumer.

These correspondents of The Star will report the facts of interest to the men and women who buy the commodities of life, and will tell of the big developments in the business world upon which the prosperity of the individual so much depends.

To get "Today's business news today" read

The Evening Star

LEHIGH COAL DECLARES SPECIAL CASH DIVIDEND

Cuts Melon of 150 Per Cent on $9,210,000 Stock Outstanding.

NEW YORK, March 7.—The Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal Company today declared a special cash dividend of 150 per cent on its